From Fr. Peter's Desk
The Epiphany Of The Lord

Dear Parish Family:

In our First Reading from the Prophet Isaiah, the prophet points to Jerusalem as a beacon, shining radiantly to draw families, rulers and foreigners to its glory, even as it was still rebuilding after years of desolation. We often feel that we have nothing radiant in us or in our lives, but with the light of Christ in us we are in fact blessed with a source of light for ourselves and others.

St. Paul, in our second reading, explicitly states that Gentiles are "members of the same body." This was not a foregone conclusion as the early church determined that the body of Christ is one and that all followers belong to it.

In our Gospel reading, we hear of the Magi, who were truly wise. They not only set out at once for Judea once they saw the star at its rising, but they also changed their plan to return to Herod after finding the child. They had an epiphany, as it were, after encountering the Messiah, after finding Him in a place they could not have anticipated!

My brothers and sisters in Christ, we too have countless encounters with the risen Jesus in our everyday dealings with others, our prayer life and in His coming to us in the silence of our hearts. We would do well to be open to our own epiphanies after an unexpected encounter with the Lord.

God Bless You All,
Fr. Peter

Stewardship Reflection

In today's Gospel, we hear about the Magi offering gifts to the Newborn King.

Living Stewardship

This week, be sure to see Jesus is everyone you come across. As the Magi gave gifts to Jesus, may we give love and compassion to our neighbors.
