JANUARY 14/15, 2017

THE THEME

Today we hear titles given to Jesus, who is called the Son of God, the Lamb, and the true Servant who brings salvation to the whole world. His role is completely based on his relationship to God, whom he calls his Father. Our role is based on our relationship to Jesus, when we begin to know him as he is and what he is called to do. Like him, our task is to continually deepen the relationship that leads us to know who we are and what we are called to do. That noble work is never finished.

THE READINGS

ISAIAH 49:3, 5-6: The servant will bring salvation.

1CORINTHIANS 1:1-3: All who call upon the name of Jesus are called to be holy.

JOHN 1:29-34: John proclaims Jesus as the Son of God and the Lamb of God.

From Fr. Peter's Desk
2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

As we enter back into the season of "Ordinary Time", our first reading of today focuses on the Lord's pronouncement of the mission of the servant. This mission is twofold. First, the people will be brought back to the Lord and returned from exile. Second, the servant will be a light to all the nations. All this the Lord will do; the servant will be an instrument of the Lord's salvation. As St. Paul begins his letter to the Corinthians, in our second reading, he first establishes his identity and authority to teach them. He states that he has been called by Jesus even though he never met Jesus in his public life. Just as he has been called, he reminds all the faithful that they too have been called to holiness by the same Lord. Paul's closing blessing is repeated in similar words in every Eucharistic celebration. In our Gospel passage, St. John the evangelist, recognizes John the Baptist's clear call by God to baptize as a preparation for the coming of the Messiah. In the Gospel account, St. John sees the event of Jesus' own baptism as an indication that Jesus, the Son of God, was called by the Father to take away the sins of the world. My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, just as St. John the Baptist recognized Jesus as the Son of God, we too are called to recognize who Jesus is and what is it that He asks of us. Maybe a clue was given to us in the first reading of Isaiah: "I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth." Are we prepared to be the "light of the World?"

*God Bless You All,
 Fr. Peter*

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Reflection

Today responsorial Psalm is the theme song of the good steward: "Here am I, Lord: I come to do your will." May I, too, stand ready to offer myself and my gifts in the service of God.

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who stand ready to accept, share and cultivate their gifts for service, beginning with our parish ministries and moving beyond.

Faith Direct

The twelve days of Christmas culminate with the celebration of the wonderful feast of Epiphany. I am thankful for all the generous gifts that you provide to our parish, but I realize that you cannot be with us every Sunday of the year. Please consider using our secure electronic giving program, Faith Direct. Faith Direct will automatically process any offertory or second collection donations of your choosing. Visit www.faithdirect.net and use our Church Code: NY296. Thank you for your continued support of our parish family!

God Bless You,
Fr. Peter

Telecare Telethon

This weekend the Telecare Telethon is on Saturday from 2-10pm and then again on Sunday from 12-10pm. Please tune in on Cablevision channel 29/137 to support our Diocesan Television Station. Celebrity chefs, musical groups and NY sports teams will all make an appearance on this years show. Please consider making a donation by phone or a secure donation over the internet at www.telecaretv.org.

Christian Unity Week

We begin the annual observance of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity on January 18th. This week of prayer for unity was begun in 1908 by Fr. Paul Wattson, who founded the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement in Garrison, NY. Every year it has been observed across the entire world from January 18th-25th. This year, the theme for the week is "Reconciliation-The love of Christ compels us (2Corinthians 5:14-20)." Especially during this week but throughout the year as well, all Christians are invited to enter into spiritual ecumenism, namely, joining together in prayer so that all of our divisions may cease. Bishop Murphy will lead an Ecumenical Prayer Service on Wednesday, January 18th at 7pm at the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception in Huntington. Please call the parish office for further details.
