THE THEME
When we are tempted to think we go it alone, when we doubt that God will hold us up and sustain us, we should take another look at the Scriptures for this 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time. They are yet one, more clear directive to believers of how to live. Bear with one another, strive for humility and patience, preserve unity among us and trust that the Lord will feed and sustain us. When we feel overwhelmed and the path forward is not clear, we must not forget that our work is really the Lord’s and he will provide what we need.

THE READINGS
2KINGS 4:42-44: Trust that the Lord will provide.
EPHESIANS 4:1-6: We must live in a manner worthy of our call.
JOHN 6:1-15: We will be fed by the bread of life.

Dear Parish Family:

Our First Reading is the miracle story of the Prophet Elisha feeding the one hundred people with twenty loaves of barley and some fresh grain, with enough for all and some leftovers. This story reminds us of our Gospel Reading and the multiplication of the loaves and fishes. What we need to take away from this is that God will abundantly care for His people. In God, no one will go hungry.

In St. Paul’s Letter to the Ephesians, we hear about a list of virtues that teach us what it means to live as Christians. The statement of unity reveals how deep the communion among Christians within the Church is. The Church, and all of it’s people, make up the one Body of Christ.

Our Gospel reading from St. John concerns Jesus’ identity as the Bread of Life. Foreshadowing the Eucharist, Jesus gives thanks, blesses the 5 loaves and 2 fish, and feeds the hungry people. Through this miracle, Jesus provides more than enough for everyone. His work is a ministry of nourishment for it is the will of His Father that He should feed people, even with His very life.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, we gather today to celebrate the Eucharist, as we do each Sunday, to be nourished by Christ’s Body and Blood. We heard, in today’s Gospel, one of Jesus’ most familiar miracles. But every time we celebrate the Eucharist we witness another miracle, the transformation of bread and wine into Jesus’ Body and Blood. May this miracle nourish us as we go out into the world to live a life of thanksgiving for Christ’s gift to us, the gift of salvation.

God Bless You All,
Fr. Peter

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Reflection

“The hand of the Lord feeds us,” says the Psalmist, “he answers all our needs.” Both Elisha’s servant in the first reading and the disciples in the Gospel story who witnessed the feeding of the five thousand saw this happen and knew it to be true.

Living Stewardship

We are grateful this week for all stewards in our parish who feed the hungry through efforts such as the food pantry.
