THE THEME

“Alleluia! Alleluia! God’s love never fails! We rejoice today in the light and love of the Resurrection.

From this day until Pentecost, our first readings will be drawn from the Acts of the Apostles, the book which offers insight into the formation of the early church and the thoughts and actions of the disciples after the Resurrection. Let us rejoice and be glad that we are a part of that unfolding mystery.

From Fr. Peter's Desk Easter Sunday

Dear Parish Family:

In our First Reading from Acts, Peter explains the significance of Jesus' resurrection, describing the mission that Christ left the apostles. They are to preach forgiveness, even to the very people who killed him. No human mind could have conceived of such mercy. Only God, whose wisdom is beyond anything that can be asked or imagined, is capable of such love.

In Paul's letter to the Colossians, Paul teaches that Jesus' resurrection gives us hope for a glorious end to our lives. Even as we live, death eats away at us through misfortunes such as illness, fear, injury and persecution. When we pray and perform acts of mercy, we rely on Christ's conquest of death to overcome our earthly misfortunes. When we die in faith, we rely on Christ to raise us as he himself rose.

In today's Gospel, the empty tomb is a source of confusion and anxiety for Mary Magdalene, Peter and the beloved disciple. The discarded burial clothes signify that the one once bound by them was now free.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, for the fifty days of the Easter season, we celebrate our resurrection faith with gladness. We are invited to spiritually recall and reflect on the Easter mysteries, a process called mystagogy. Keep Easter alive in your hearts as "this is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad".

Fr. Manuel and I, as well as our entire staff, wish to all a very Blessed and Happy Easter!

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter
