PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY:

Hours by appointment only.

THE THEME

My friends, we so often find ourselves confronted with conflicting values and demands. Today we ponder how to balance our call to discipleship with our culture's call to accumulate wealth and material things. We hear that God is aware of both greed and the needs of the poor. Discipleship challenges us to be prudent, wise, focused and balanced in our interaction with money. It's not easy. Keeping our eyes on the final prize is what really matters.

THE READINGS

AMOS 8:4-7: God is aware of Israel's greed and the needs of the poor.

1TIMOTHY 2:1-8: We are happy to pray for all.

LUKE 16:1-13: The dishonest steward exemplifies wisdom and the use of money.

From Fr. Peter’s Desk
25th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

Our First reading from the prophet Amos begins with a strident warning to those who trample on the needy by inflating the price of grain and cheating when they weigh it on their scales. God looks down and keeps watch over the lowliest of his people. When the poor are trampled down, the Lord raises them up.

In First Timothy, St. Paul suggests that Christians should be leading quiet and peaceable lives “in all devotion and dignity”. He urges his followers to be good witnesses to the God “who wills everyone to be saved”.

Luke’s Gospel presents a puzzling parable about a dishonest steward who is praised. The steward has squandered the property entrusted to him by a rich master and to save himself from losing his job, the steward reduces the debts owed to his master. Instead of firing the steward on the spot, the master commends him. Jesus interprets this as “making friends with dishonest wealth”, perhaps suggesting that the wealth entrusted to the steward was dishonest to begin with. Jesus ends the parable by declaring, “You cannot serve both God and mammon (wealth)”.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, it is difficult and sometimes impossible in a complicated global economy to detach our financial security from systems of oppression, but we must try. We are called to do our best to understand the daily needs and challenges of people affected by systemic indifference and try to work to bring attention to the plight of those living in distress.

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter

Stewardship Reflection

In the Second Reading, Paul tells us to pray for those in authority. Let us do that and ask that all in authority open their hearts and minds to God’s will.

Living Stewardship

We are called to treat everyone with dignity, respect and love. We can do this in little ways throughout our week—hold the door open for someone, smile, visit or call someone who is lonely. Our little hospitable deeds can have big impacts on our souls.

St. Pius X Residence for Retired Priests

The mission of St. Pius X Residence is to provide a nurturing environment that respects and cherishes the lifelong commitment of our beloved priests. The Residence strives to create a warm and supportive community where they can enjoy their retirement years with dignity, surrounded by like-minded individuals who share their dedication to faith.

As our elderly priests enter this stage of their life, they often experience ongoing challenges that require added care and attention, and because of you, the St Pius X Residence is there for them. Even in retirement, our priests continue to make a profound impact on the spiritual and personal lives of Catholics of all ages. When they are able, they celebrate Mass in area parishes, visit the sick and homebound, and bring God's Word to those in prison.

Please support our beloved priests in their retirement years.

Fr. Steve Pietrowski, Rector

"I am so proud to be able to serve all the wonderful priests residing at St Pius. This house provides a place for our priests who have a need for care and help for daily activities. It's a safe place to age gracefully. Here at St. Pius, we provide for one another. We call this place home."

Msgr. Ron Richardson:

"When I was living on my own for a number of years, I felt a sense of isolation, especially during Covid but here I am with many of my fellow priests who I served with at times throughout the years. I've always been a walker, most of my life I've walked and jogged. I love the outdoors and I am so grateful to be here at this gorgeous campus."

The special collection for retired priests living at St. Pius X Residence will take place next weekend. Please be as generous as possible!

Thank You! <https://www.stpiusresidence.org/>
