Our Faith Increase Our Faith

THE THEME

How long, O Lord? Is this not a question most of us have asked countless times? It's a question we ask when we're weary or questioning how to keep the faith when we have lost the vision. Even the apostles who were with Jesus pleaded for increased faith. Jesus responded that real faith takes the form of service.

THE READINGS

HABAKKUK 1:2-3; 2:2-4: Habakkuk's doubt and God's promise.

2TIMOTHY 1:6-8, 13-14: Paul encourages Timothy to have faith.

LUKE 17:5-10: Jesus responds to the disciples' request for faith.

From Fr. Peter’s Desk
27th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

The lament of Habakkuk, given in the final days before the fall of Jerusalem, is what we hear about in our First Reading. Strife and discord surround him, and God seems to ignore his pleas. But no, justice will come, will be fulfilled one day. This era we live in may seem lengthy and momentous, but to God it is only the blink of an eye.

In our Second Reading, St. Paul writes to Timothy, his younger companion, to instruct and encourage him. He gives Timothy three tasks, but each task is paired with a prior gift of God. With strength from God, Timothy must bear his share of hardship for the sake of the Gospel. With the help of the Holy Spirit, Timothy will guard the “rich trust” of the teachings about Christ that Paul handed on to him.

We hear, in today’s Gospel, that the disciples ask Jesus to increase their faith. Jesus replies that they do not need more faith; even faith the size of the smallest of seeds is enough to literally move mountains. Jesus gently chides them; they are not masters to be served, but servants who gratefully complete all the tasks that their loving master gives them—including the task of forgiveness.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, like a seed, we carry within us the DNA to achieve the form for which God created us but we must choose to grow ourselves into God’s desire for us. It can be hard, and Jesus wants his followers to willingly undertake these hardships, rather than ask God to simply make it easier. We must commit to do the work God has asked of us to grow ourselves to be the creation he intends us to be.

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter

Stewardship Reflection

In today’s Second Reading, St. Paul encourages us to spread the Good News to others with the help of God.

Living Stewardship

As Christians, we are called to spread the Gospel, Ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten your mind and help you to spread the Gospel. When we trust in God and do His will, we can be formed into powerful, confident missionaries.

The Red Mass is an annual Catholic liturgy traditionally marking the opening of the judicial year. While it has its roots in gathering members of the legal profession—judges, lawyers, professors, students, and officials—it is warmly open to all who wish to join in prayer for wisdom, justice, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.
