THE THEME

In today’s gospel, the Kingdom and Kingship of Jesus are set in the countercultural context of the cross.

As startling as this is, it may be a good shot of realism for those of us who struggle through life. The King we celebrate today bears little semblance to our royal stereotypes. He knew almost no glory in his life, and his Kingdom was hard earned through suffering and death. This is the kind of King we can approach with confidence, for he knows our pain and our need for forgiveness.

THE READINGS

2SAMUEL 5:1-3: David is anointed King of Israel.

COLOSSIANS 1:12-20: Paul’s hymn to Jesus as Lord of all.

LUKE 23:35-43: “Jesus, remember me when you come into your Kingdom.”

From Fr. Peter's Desk Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Dear Parish Family:

In our First Reading, Saul (the first king of Israel) is dead, but the house of Saul and the house of David are still at war with one another. Then all the tribes of Israel come to David to acknowledge that he is the one whom God chose to shepherd Israel. David accepts the mantle of leadership and is anointed as their king.

The reading from Colossians reveals Jesus' true identity, not only is He king over Israel, He is "the image of the invisible God" and the ruler over all creation. God reconciles all things, bringing them back into restored relationship with the Creator.

We hear, in today's Gospel reading, that the descendant of David, and a very different kind of king, is being executed in the city of Jerusalem. But as the sign that is hung on His cross says (meant as a ridicule) "This is the King of the Jews", Jesus is the true king who has the power to welcome the repentant rebel being crucified with Him into His Kingdom of everlasting life.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, there is nothing more comforting than the authority with which Jesus declares, "Today you will be with me in Paradise." We live in hope that the same will be said about us when we die. Though we are all sinners, even the most notorious sinner has the hope of salvation through sincere repentance, no matter how delayed. But since we do not know the day nor the hour, let us live each day of our lives with love and in service to God and our brothers and sisters.

*God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter*

Stewardship Reflection

Jesus Christ is our God, our King and our Savior. Turn to Him-give Him everything you have and love Him as much as you can. He loves us more than we can ever imagine.

Living Stewardship

As we celebrate Thanksgiving, think of the less fortunate in the world and in our community.

Perhaps you can donate some time at a soup kitchen. You can even donate some goods to a food pantry and help a family in need.

If you have not yet contributed, please consider doing so. Checks can be made out to the Catholic Ministries Appeal and placed in the envelopes provided on the back table of the church or written directly to St. Andrews with the notation of CMA in the memo section and dropped in the collection basket.
