THE THEME

My friends, today’s readings are about making choices. We hear in the first reading that we are offered life and death, and whichever we chose will be given to us. In the Gospel Jesus preaches about our choice to be angry or not, truthful or not, faithful or not. What we choose will have lasting impact on our earthly lives, the lives of our loved ones, and our life beyond the grave. Let us pray today for wisdom.

THE READINGS

SIRACH 15:15-20: Before us are life and death; it is our choice.

1CORINTHIANS 2:6-10: God’s wisdom, not that of the rulers of this age.

MATTHEW 5:17-37: A sensible, sometimes difficult, way to live.

From Fr. Peter's Desk
6th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

In our First Reading from Sirach, we hear that the Torah, God's law, was given to Israel not as a burden but as a gift and path to life. This divine law contains covenant stipulations that bind God and people together in enduring relationship. To Sirach, faithfulness to God's torah was not impossible. Sirach encapsulates blessing and curse in imagery of fire and water. A person may stretch their hand to one or the other: an act of free will and, one hopes, an obvious choice.

In 1 Corinthians, St. Paul speaks of a mystery previously hidden that has now been revealed. That mystery is knowledge of salvation through Jesus Christ.

In this week's Gospel reading, Jesus emphasizes that His teachings and actions did not annul the law of Moses. They fulfilled it. Jesus' teachings underscored God's love and forgiveness, and the need to be compassionate and merciful.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, Jesus asks us, as His disciples, not only to live by the commandments of our faith, but to go beyond them. He teaches us that the kingdom of heaven always demands more from us than being good rule-followers. Jesus asks us to look deeper and to root out the causes of sin, which lead to devastation and broken relationships, i.e. anger leading to murder and lustfulness leading to infidelity. We are called to be true followers of Christ and work for the coming of the Kingdom of Heaven.

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter

Stewardship Reflection

In today's Gospel, we are taught by Jesus how to live.

Living Stewardship

What is one thing you could do this week to be at service to God and neighbor? Whatever you do, offer it up to give glory to God.
