THE THEME

Brothers and sisters in Christ, today we hear the familiar story of the Transfiguration, when Jesus invites three of his friends to come to the mountain with him. While they are there, strange things happen that leave the disciples afraid, wondering just who Jesus is. Sometimes we must wonder the same-who is this Jesus?

THE READINGS

GENESIS 12:1-4a: The call of Abraham.

2TIMOTHY 1:8b-10: God calls us to live a holy life.

MATTHEW 17:1-9: Jesus is transfigured: God says, "Listen."

From Fr. Peter's Desk
Second Sunday of Lent

Dear Parish Family:

In our First Reading from Genesis, God calls Abraham to leave behind home and family to journey to an unknown land. Moses forsakes the familiar to embrace a future known only to God. In so doing, he both receives God's blessing and becomes a conduit of blessing for the World.

Second Timothy tells of revelation, too, of grace, life, and immortality made manifest in the person of Jesus and the Gospel that tells His story. The author urges Timothy to find in this revelation strength and courage to endure hardship incurred for the sake of the Gospel.

In our Gospel reading, the transfiguration reveals to the disciples, and to us, key information about who Jesus is. Here, Jesus' identity is relational, connecting Him to Israel's prophets and to God. Jesus' shining face echoes the transformation of Moses after he spent forty days on the mountain with God. Moses was indeed a prophet and liberator, mediator and giver of the law.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, the transfiguration of the Lord gave the disciples a glimpse of Jesus in His glory. We experience the glorified Lord every time we visit Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Before the tabernacle, we experience heaven on earth!

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter
