THE THEME

As we continue our journey through this season of Lent, we are met with the question of who is worthy in God’s eyes. Based on false expectations the Israelites and the Pharisees never thought David would be chosen king or that Jesus would heal the man born blind. Worthiness may be found not in reputation or pedigree or appearance, but in one’s heart.

From Fr. Peter’s Desk
Fourth Sunday of Lent

Dear Parish Family:

In our First Reading from Samuel, God teaches Samuel the difference between human seeing and divine seeing. Human seeing lingers at the surface, forming judgments based on external qualities. God looks deeper, probing into character, mind, and will. What God sees in “the heart” becomes the basis for choosing the people’s leader.

For the writer of Ephesians, Christ is the source of light that banishes darkness and makes clear-seeing possible. Those who walk in this light become light in turn, helping others see and choose what is right.

In John’s Gospel, seeing is more than a metaphor: Jesus heals a man born with blindness, causing his eyes to see for the first time. This act of healing prompts the man to identify Jesus as a prophet, since certain of Israel’s prophets were also miraculous healers. The man’s ability to perceive Jesus with his eyes becomes a symbol of his ability to “see” Jesus for who He is.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, the healing of the blind man teaches that Jesus takes the initiative in our spiritual life. Sin blinds us from the true vision of God and wounds our souls and our relationships. Jesus waits to touch each of us, to heal us and to restore all of us to communion with him and others. He is knocking at our door, are we going to answer that knock?

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter
