PARISH SOCIAL MINISTRY:

Hours by appointment only.

THE THEME

Brothers and sisters, during this Easter season we have heard stories about the life of the very early church. Everything we experience in the church today—inspiration and ignorance, compassion and conflict, extraordinary charity and extraordinary self-interest—were all experienced by our earliest ancestors in the faith. Today we will hear about how one conflict between the Greek Christians and the Hebrew Christians was resolved. Let us pray for our church, for the desire and the creativity to find solutions to our struggles today.

THE READINGS

ACTS OF THE APOSTLES 6:1-7: The call of the first deacons.

1PETER 2:4-9: We are chosen to witness to the glory of God.

JOHN 14:1-12: Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life.

From Fr. Peter's Desk
Fifth Sunday of Easter

Dear Parish Family:

In our First Reading, a similar pair appears in the references to two distinct but related ministries: word and table. These too are not opposed to each other but are synergistic. Body and soul are nourished in tandem, and neither can be neglected.

According to 1 Peter, Christ's resurrection is not the end in itself but a new beginning—the foundation of a future that God has planned for God's chosen and holy people. The resurrected Christ reveals this future and makes it possible. Those who respond to faith's invitation will, like Christ, become living stones out of which God builds a house of worship.

A different architectural metaphor appears in John 14:1-12. Jesus has promised to "prepare a place" for his disciples, noting that "in my Father's house, there are many dwelling places". Thomas' question literalizes the metaphor, seeking GPS coordinates to locate the heavenly bed and breakfast. But, like the "spiritual house" of 1 Peter, this "place is not an actual building". It is intimacy with God the Father. The directions to this place stand before them in the person of Jesus, who is himself "the way".

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, "Do not let your hearts be troubled". Jesus says this to us when we suffer worry and loss. Jesus gave us "the way" to navigate dark times. Jesus is The Way and he walks with us through prayer. He assures us he will do anything asked in His name.

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter

Stewardship Reflection

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the Apostles that He is "the way and the truth and the life".

Living Stewardship

We have been called out of darkness and into the light. Let our lives reflect that calling as we live out our lives as Christian disciples. What is one thing you could do this week that says, "I am a Christian"?

Sharing Our Gifts through the CMA

Stewardship is the grateful response of every Christian disciple to share our God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure in a way that passionately sets our hearts on fire and touches the lives of others, as we live the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is an excellent way to journey through the Pillars of Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service to express your gratitude to God.

Through the Pillar of Hospitality and Service, many parishes form CMA committees to support a smooth and organized Appeal effort and by creating a welcoming environment for all. Others share their gifts by volunteering in the ministries that the CMA supports, such as formation classes and parish outreach programs.

Through the Pillar of Prayer and Formation, the Catholic Ministries Appeal brings us closer to those we help and support as we become more "connected" with our sisters and brothers through prayer and evangelization ministries. We may wish to pray for those who support and volunteer for the committee and for those who receive support from the appeal.

The CMA provides an opportunity for stewards to use their treasure to serve more than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers each year in our formation and Catholic Charities pastoral programs. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.

Support the Catholic School Difference!

Second Collection Weekend 2026

On the weekend of May 2-3, all parishes in the Diocese of Rockville Centre will hold a second collection in support of Catholic elementary schools. Your generosity helps sustain the vital mission of Catholic education on Long Island. Thank you for supporting the Catholic School Difference — where faith, academic excellence, and values come together to shape tomorrow's leaders. For parishes with schools, the funds support their own school; for parishes without schools, the funds provide scholarships through the Tomorrow's Hope Foundation.
