14th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

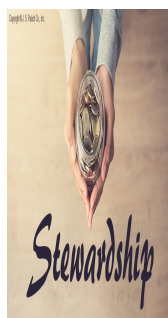

Our First Reading from the Prophet Zechariah, prepares us to hear today's Gospel by describing the coming of a meek king who does not make his appearance on a powerful horse of war but on a donkey. This meek king-not a warrior king-will bring peace to the nations.

In our Second Reading, St. Paul describes our life in the Spirit. The apostle teaches us that we are either "in the spirit" or "in the flesh." If we are "in the spirit," we live in the realm of God's Spirit. If we live "in the flesh," we will live in the realm of this world. Jesus, the meek and humble king, is the pre-eminent example of what it means to live one's life by and in the power of God's Spirit.

In today's Gospel, we hear Jesus' intimate prayer to His Father. We listen as He praises the Father for revealing the mysteries of the kingdom, not to "the wise and the learned," but to His disciples who are the "little ones" of the kingdom. Jesus goes on to invite those who are burdened to find rest in Him and to learn from Him because He is meek and humble of heart. His yoke-the message of the Gospel of the kingdom that He preaches-is easy and light.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, our readings today remind us that we are not bound by the demands, pains, and stress of our earthly reality. While suffering is a part of the human experience, the Gospel gives us hope that the burdens we carry are not forever; God desires to free us from what we carry and give us rest.

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter

Sharing Our Gifts through the CMA

Stewardship is the grateful response of every Christian disciple to share our God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure in a way that passionately sets our hearts on fire and touches the lives of others, as we live the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is an excellent way to journey through the Pillars of Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service to express your gratitude to God.

Through the Pillar of Hospitality and Service, many parishes form CMA committees to support a smooth and organized Appeal effort and by creating a welcoming environment for all. Others share their gifts by volunteering in the ministries that the CMA supports, such as formation classes and parish outreach programs.

Through the Pillar of Prayer and Formation, the Catholic Ministries Appeal brings us closer to those we help and support as we become more "connected" with our sisters and brothers through prayer and evangelization ministries. We may wish to pray for those who support and volunteer for the committee and for those who receive support from the appeal.

The CMA provides an opportunity for stewards to use their treasure to serve more than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers each year in our formation and Catholic Charities pastoral programs. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is Stewardship in action!
