THE THEME

Today Jesus tells us the parable of the wheat and the weed and cautions us against arrogance. It is not our job to root out evil.

Those who try to eliminate evil often harm the good. It is God's job to make the judgments about who remains and who is cast out. Let us pray for humility and patience as we confront wrongdoing in our world.

THE READINGS

WISDOM 12:13, 16-19: Those who are just must be kind and permit repentance for sin.

ROMANS 8:26-27: Because we do not know how to pray, the Spirit inspires the prayer.

MATTHEW 13:24-43: The weeds and wheat grow together until harvest time.

From Fr. Peter's Desk

16th Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

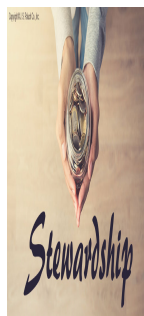

Today's first reading comes from a section of the Book of Wisdom that speaks of God's mercy. It teaches that God, who is almighty, is the source of justice, lenient to all, thereby leading us to repentance. This is a remarkable meditation that shows the intimate relationship between God's power and God's mercy.

In our Second reading from Romans, St. Paul says that, left to ourselves, we do not know how to pray or what to ask for. Therefore, the Spirit comes to our assistance, praying with us and interceding for us.

Jesus, as we hear in today's Gospel, gives us the parable of the weeds and the wheat. There are three movements in the passage. First, Jesus tells the parable of the wheat and the weeds and two shorter parables of the kingdom. Next, St. Matthew uses a quotation from Psalm 78:2 to explain that Jesus' parables of the kingdom reveal mysteries hidden from the foundation of the world. Finally, Jesus interprets the meaning of the parable of the wheat and the weeds to His disciples. This parable warns them that they are not to judge others prematurely because judgment belongs to God who will distinguish between good and evil.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, today we are reminded that whenever we feel we have failed in our Christian efforts, there is always hope for a better tomorrow. God does not wish to be separated from us but looks upon us with leniency and what could be more hope-filled than that!

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter

Sharing Our Gifts through the CMA

Stewardship is the grateful response of every Christian disciple to share our God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure in a way that passionately sets our hearts on fire and touches the lives of others, as we live the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is an excellent way to journey through the Pillars of Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service to express your gratitude to God.

Through the Pillar of Hospitality and Service, many parishes form CMA committees to support a smooth and organized Appeal effort and by creating a welcoming environment for all. Others share their gifts by volunteering in the ministries that the CMA supports, such as formation classes and parish outreach programs.

Through the Pillar of Prayer and Formation, the Catholic Ministries Appeal brings us closer to those we help and support as we become more "connected" with our sisters and brothers through prayer and evangelization ministries. We may wish to pray for those who support and volunteer for the committee and for those who receive support from the appeal.

The CMA provides an opportunity for stewards to use their treasure to serve more than 800,000 of our sisters and brothers each year in our formation and Catholic Charities pastoral programs. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is Stewardship in action!

2025 - 2026 RELIGIOUS ED PROGRAM REPORT, St Andrew, Sag Harbor

This past year, 86 people participated in faith formation in the St Andrew Parish

Religious Education Program, including:

OCIA (full initiation into the Church, Easter 2026)	1 person
OCIA (Sacrament of Confirmation at Pentecost 2026)	2 people
Confirmation Program (middle and HS students, ant. Oct 2026)	11 students
First Communion (elementary students, May 2026)	15 students

Pope Leo xiv, an American Augustinian friar elected in May 2025, consistently emphasizes building unity and communion in the rich teaching and spirituality of the Catholic Church.

By imbuing our Religious Ed curriculum in God's Holy Scriptures, in the Sacraments, and most especially meeting the faith witness of catechists and our Parish community, we accompany our families and children on that path.

Building a religious education program in St Andrew's presents blessings and challenges: the culture of family life on the east end and our pastoral life is impacted by wide geographic spread of our community. Thus, parents continually balance their own personal, familial, & personal responsibilities in scheduling and transporting their children to and from school, sports, performance & arts activities, social experiences, as well as to the Religious Education Program.

These challenges impact "the when, where, and how" our religious ed program in St Andrew's is organized (in only four rooms available for classes).

However, the challenges are offset by the encouraging and inspiring support of our priests, pastoral staff, the amazing generosity of our catechetical volunteers, and the goodness of our parishioners.

Changes in the scope and process of the program, the curriculum and more direct communication with families that were enacted two years ago continue to show positive results. The changes were made as a response to patterns of low attendance in class and family engagement data.

So, we started the transformation by centering the program around the Sunday 10:45 Family Mass in St Andrew's. But, in order to bring the entire program to Sunday mornings, the curriculum we adopted needed to be more focused on the "Three S's of Roman Catholicism:"

- Salvation history*: rooted in reading and studying the Sacred Scriptures;
- "Systematics"*: the vocabulary of Trinity, Church, Sacraments, Holy Mass, etc.;
- Spirituality*: traditional prayers, Rosary, devotions such (as Stations of the Cross), Lectio Divina meditation, etc.

And this year, as a program-wide social justice service project to address critical food insecurity locally, our children and parents donated several hundred pounds of non-perishable food items to the Sag Harbor Food Pantry. Many thanks to parishioner (and Religious Ed Program parent) Michael Tracy for facilitating food deliveries!!

Our new simplified, dynamic, vocabulary-based, theme-centered, “hands on” approach enables our children and families to encounter our Lord and His Church in what is the best of our Catholic tradition. I think we can all agree there has been a positive impact in the engagement of the children and families in our parish and in the faith: by regular attendance at the 10:45 Family Mass, the children and parents are accompanied by our entire parish in their journey of faith.

No one person can execute a program of this scope. I am forever thankful to the volunteer catechists who share their faith with the children over hours of service. So, to Donna Izenberg, Margaret Smyth, Helen Chisolm, Cristina Follendelas, Betsy Remkus, Marguerite Basti, Lance Gotko, Carol Hyde and Paul Gereck: Thank You! Thank You! Thank You! Your witness to our faith, dedication, creativity, generosity, flexibility, and sense of humor are inspiring to me and is much appreciated.

Our priests, Father Peter, Father Manuel, Pastoral Minister Robert and secretary Jeanne Brown provide the spiritual guidance, support and pastoral leadership that enables the formation of us all into the Communion of the Body of Christ in the Church. We are so fortunate for these kind, holy men and their service to our community! Personally, I am most grateful for their generosity and patience with me in support of the children!

Please stay tuned and be sure to read our periodic announcements and emails going forward during the summer. Please be aware:

- We ALWAYS need more catechists (if interested, even part-time, PLEASE call us),
- The registration for 2026-27 will be open online in the parish website in August,
- We're looking to improve our information-sharing (including social media).

If you wish to offer assistance on any aspects of the program, please contact me.

Our sole purpose is to support our parents in their role as “first and most important teachers” in the faith of the children.

Parents, many thanks for trusting us in partnering with you in that role. It is an honor and blessing to know you and work with your children.

We are always grateful for the prayers and support of our wonderful parishioners!

Parents, don't forget to pray with your children and for all of us!!

Enjoy the summer! I hope to see you around and about Sag Harbor and Bridgehampton, at St Andrew's and QMHR, and especially at Sunday Mass!
