THE THEME

We focus today on the image of the vineyard: God's own people, loved, nurtured and cared for. But the lovely image carries a warning. God expects fruits from the vineyard-results from us. God wants us to grow and flourish. Both our actions and our inactions have consequences. What are we doing to be the fruitful people God wants?

THE READINGS

ISAIAH 5:1-7: God's vineyard is abandoned and ruined.

PHILIPPIANS 4:6-9: Keep doing what you have learned, and be at peace.

From Fr. Peter's Desk 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

The story of the vineyard that we hear in our First Reading, is a story of God's relationship with the people of Israel. Israel is compared to a vineyard that, the Lord carefully planted on a fertile hillside. When the people were firmly settled in the Promised Land, the Lord God looked for a harvest of Judgment and justice from them but instead, they produced a harvest of bloodshed, and instead of a harvest of justice, they produced a harvest of violence.

St. Paul, in his letter to the Philippians, describes the fruit for which the Lord is looking: whatever is true, Whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure!

Jesus shares the parable of the vineyard, which draws upon our first two readings. When Jesus asks what the owner will do to the tenants when he comes, the chief priests and elders correctly answer that the vineyard will be given to others. Jesus then says that the kingdom of God will be taken from them (religious leaders) and given to a people (those who believe in the message of the Kingdom) who will produce its fruit.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, our second reading from St. Paul might be among the hardest to put into practice in our lives: "Have no anxiety at all" How many of us have struggled with worries and concerns that cloud our judgment and strain our hearts? Sometimes it's not easy to focus on those true, honorable, just, pure and lovely things when so much weighs on us. St. Paul reminds us that God loves us enough to sit with us in the human experience and love us through it. Let us pray that we can see and feel our Lord's presence in not only the good times of our lives but in our struggles as well.

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter

Stewardship Reflection

"Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God."

Living Stewardship

When you are upset or hurt, what is your first reaction? Anger? Sadness? Develop a habit of Turning to prayer first as soon as you are upset. Make it become who you are and let your first Reaction always be prayer!

20 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL 26 DIOCESE OF ROCKVILLE CENTRE

"Together, as one people, as brothers and sisters, let us walk towards God and love one another,"
- Pope Leo XIV

SHARING THE GOSPEL WITH OTHERS

"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace"
1 Peter 4:10

Sharing Our Gifts through the CMA

Stewardship is the grateful response of every Christian disciple to share our God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure in a way that passionately sets our hearts on fire and touches the lives of others, as we live the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is an excellent way to journey through the Pillars of Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service to express your gratitude to God.

Through the Pillar of Hospitality and Service, many parishes form CMA committees to support a smooth and organized Appeal effort and by creating a welcoming environment for all. Others share their gifts by volunteering in the ministries that the CMA supports, such as formation classes and parish outreach programs.

Through the Pillar of Prayer and Formation, the Catholic Ministries Appeal brings us closer to those we help and support as we become more "connected" with our sisters and brothers through prayer and evangelization ministries. We may wish to pray for those who support and volunteer for the committee and for those who receive support from the appeal.

The CMA provides an opportunity for stewards to use their treasure to serve more than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers each year in our formation and Catholic Charities pastoral programs. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.
