THE THEME

We ponder the kingdom of heaven as a wedding feast. God has great things prepared for those who are invited into the kingdom. But not all those who are invited accept the invitation. And some who accept are not prepared to enter. God's invitation is gracious and open to all, but we must respond.

THE READINGS

ISAIAH 25:6-10a: The Lord will provide for all peoples.

PHILIPPIANS 4:12-14, 19-20: I can do all things in him who strengthens me.

From Fr. Peter's Desk 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parish Family:

For the past three weeks, our first readings have been taken from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah, whose oracles speak so eloquently of the salvation God has in store for us. Today, we hear of a magnificent vision of the end of time when the Lord will provide a Rich banquet for all the peoples of the earth. On that day, every tear will be wiped away because the Lord will have destroyed the power of death forever.

In the Second reading from Philippians, Paul thanks the Philippians for their concern for him while he was imprisoned. Paul has learned to live both with and without material riches. He has learned the secret of living in the kingdom of heaven.

In His parable of the wedding feast, Jesus also presents a vision of that day of salvation. Jesus adds the episode of a guest who is not properly attired for the wedding banquet. The guest is not clothed with the good works that the kingdom requires.

My brothers and sisters in Christ, today's Gospel challenges us with questions of hospitality, invitation, commitment, and consequences-like the first reading from Isaiah. God invites us to join the heavenly banquet, to partake in the Eucharistic feast. Do we respond with jubilant enthusiasm, or do we find an excuse to turn down God's invitation. We need to reflect on the wonderful gift that the Eucharist is for us and to make every effort to partake in this feast.

God Bless You Always,
Fr. Peter

Sharing Our Gifts through the CMA

Stewardship is the grateful response of every Christian disciple to share our God-given gifts of time, talent and treasure in a way that passionately sets our hearts on fire and touches the lives of others, as we live the corporal and spiritual works of mercy. The Catholic Ministries Appeal is an excellent way to journey through the Pillars of Hospitality, Prayer, Formation and Service to express your gratitude to God.

Through the Pillar of Hospitality and Service, many parishes form CMA committees to support a smooth and organized Appeal effort and by creating a welcoming environment for all. Others share their gifts by volunteering in the ministries that the CMA supports, such as formation classes and parish outreach programs.

Through the Pillar of Prayer and Formation, the Catholic Ministries Appeal brings us closer to those we help and support as we become more "connected" with our sisters and brothers through prayer and evangelization ministries. We may wish to pray for those who support and volunteer for the committee and for those who receive support from the appeal.

The CMA provides an opportunity for stewards to use their treasure to serve more than 600,000 of our sisters and brothers each year in our formation and Catholic Charities pastoral programs. It is rare that just one person or one parish could touch this many lives. The CMA brings us beyond the individual, the group and the parish and unites us as one Church of Long Island.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is Stewardship in action!
